

Packing Clinic

Coordinator Name/ Phone Number

There is no such thing as the "best way" to pack a horse or mule, but there are many good ways. If you can get your load on and get to your destination without any trouble or injury to you or your stock, then you are a good packer. REMEMBER, packing is an art form, and no two people will do it the same.

PRE-TRIP PLANNING AND PREPARATION:

Horse conditioning and personal fitness
Research on the area, regulations, trail difficulty, etc.
Stock training on restraints, equipment, highlines, etc.
Stock training on standing, trail conditions, etc.
Acquire maps, recent trail & feed conditions, etc.
Plan on taking the minimum number of stock necessary
Plan on minimum impact techniques and equipment
Brand and health inspections and travel permits for horses
Obtain necessary permits (grazing, campsites, fires, etc.)
Stock shod, wormed, and vaccinated
Transportation vehicles and trailers checked and serviced
